Unit 10
The Old Brewery
Craw Hall
Brampton
Cumbria CA8 1TR

Unit previously occupied as a gym/fitness studio but suitable for a range of alternative uses available to let

Brampton is an attractive market town situated in north-east Cumbria, approximately 8 miles east of Carlisle and lying just off the A69 trunk road which links Carlisle at junction 43 of the M6 motorway with Newcastle upon Tyne and Hexham to the east. Brampton therefore offers excellent access to the M6 motorway at junctions 42, 43 and 44, together with good access to the north-east.

Location

The property, which is shown for identification on the enclosed plan, is situated to the south-east of Brampton town centre, and within walking distance of Brampton services which include Post Office, bank, independent retailers, library, restaurants and takeaway. There is a Co-op convenience store a short distance from the subject property in the town centre.

Description

Unit 10 is situated within the courtyard of the Old Brewery and has the benefit of shared car parking. The unit is immediately adjacent to Royal Mail and is situated on the 2nd floor of the property. The Old Brewery comprises a range of attractive sandstone buildings dating back to late 18th Century but converted into light industrial/retail/workshop/craft units approximately 30 years ago.
