Kendal is a strong market town situated on the edge of the Lake District and Yorkshire Dales national parks and is often referred to as the 'Gateway to the Lakes'. The town has a resident population of approximately 30,000 but draws on a much wider catchment incorporating surrounding towns and villages, and is the administrative centre and a dominant retail centre for the south Lakeland area. Kendal is approximately 8 miles from access to the M6 motorway at junction 36, 8 miles from Windermere, 22 miles north of Lancaster, 34 miles from Barrow in Furness and 52 miles south of Carlisle. Significant local employers include Anord Mardix, Furmanite, South Lakeland District Council, Lakeland Limited and the agricultural, tourism and distribution industries.

Location

The property occupies a prominent location at Station Road/Longpool, just to the north of Kendal town centre and immediately adjacent to Station House Surgery and Kendal railway station. The property occupies an elevated position and close to the Kendal Hotel, David Hayton Peugeot, Kendal Porsche and immediately adjacent to the Station House Surgery car park.

Description

The property comprises a ground floor retail unit, but considered suitable for alternative uses including showroom, office, consulting rooms (subject to any consents being received).
