Attractive building on Coast to Coast Walk, edge of Yorkshire Dales National Park & within the North Pennines National Landscape

Kirkby Stephen is an attractive and historic market town, situated in the Upper Eden Valley, and on the edge of the Westmorland Dales part of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, within the North Pennines National Landscape (formerly Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty). The town is on the banks of the River Eden, and is famed for being a popular destination on Wainwright's "Coast to Coast" walk from St Bees to Robin Hood's Bay. Kirkby Stephen lies on the A884 road linking the M6 at junction 38 with the A66 Trans-Pennine trunk road at Brough, and therefore offers easy access to the Dales, Lakes, and the North Pennines is designated by UNESCO as a Global Geopark with dark skies status.

Location

The property is situated in a prominent position at the northern end of Market Street and close to the main retail outlets in Kirkby Stephen, the Market Square and overlooking Kirkby Stephen Parish Church Churchyard (a Grade II* listed building) to the rear, and therefore offering a stunning aspect from the rear windows. Nearby occupiers include strong independent retailers, restaurants, public houses and restaurants.

Description

The property comprises a 4 storey building arranged over cellar, ground, first, second and attic floors. The property comprises offices/retail accommodation on the ground floor, with offices at first and second and storage accommodation in the cellar and attic. The property would lend itself to conversion of the upper floors to residential accommodation for letting or sale, or possible holiday-let accommodation, subject to any consents being received.

The property is of brick and stone construction beneath a pitched, slated roof, with rear outrigger overlooking the parish churchyard.
